

36th Annual Playford Ball
The Fancy Ball at the Upper Rooms Bath

Saturday, March 5, 2016
 Olivet Congregational Church
 1850 Iglehart Avenue, St. Paul, MN

5:30 p.m. Optional Light Supper
 7:00 – 11:30 p.m. Dancing
 Coleraine English Country Dance Band

Minnesota Country Dance Co-op invites you to participate in an evening of dance in the style of 18th & early 19th c. English country dancing. Dancing master John Playford first published such dances in 1650. The Ball dances will be taught four Sundays in February at Tapestry Folkdance Center.

At 5:30 p.m. we offer an optional vegetarian light supper (@ $10) prior to the evening's merriment. Dancing begins at 7 p.m. with members of Coleraine English Country Dance Band. The Fancy Ball at the Upper Rooms Bath encourages period costumes of early nineteenth century and costumes of other ages.

Directions to the Playford Ball

From eastbound 94, go south on Snelling Ave, west on Marshall Ave. The church is located on the corner of Iglehart and Dewey, one block west and one block north of the intersection of Marshall and Fairview. Enter at the courtyard on Dewey. Street parking available.
